

Romans 11: God is Not Done with Israel

Introduction.

Truth: God has always reserved a _____ among His chosen nation. (11:1–4)

*Question: Has God cast away His people? (11:1)
See Genesis 12:1–3; 15:18; 24:7; 2 Samuel 7:4–17.*

Answer: God has always reserved a _____. (11:2–4)

Question: How is the remnant reserved? (11:5–10)

*The remnant is reserved through _____ and not _____. (5–6)
See Romans 3:27–28; 4:4.*

*The rest were given a spirit of stupor. (7–10)
See Isaiah 29:9–13; Psalm 69:22–23.*

Question: Israel did not stumble to fall beyond hope, did they? (11:11–15)

The purpose of their fall. (11–12)

The purpose of _____ ministry. (13–15)

Question: What is the relationship between Israel and the world? (11:16–18)

The Gentiles become _____ of the promises to Israel.

The Gentiles should not be _____ toward Israel.

Truth: God still gives hope for individual Jews. (11:19–24)

_____ were the branches broken off? (19–20)

What _____ should I heed? (21–22)

What _____ does this give for the Jews? (23–24)

God's goal for Israel. (11:25–2)

Why were they blinded? (25–27)

How should we think about them? (28–32)

Our response? _____! (11:33–36)